

Duty of Care, Peace of Mind and Security

Longreach Travel has an impressive history of more than 30 years professional experience in the Business Travel and Corporate Travel Management arenas. Over the years, we have worked hard to ensure our client's peace of mind through a unique combination of excellent customer service, highly experienced staff, the use of the latest technology and an extensive range of services. This in turn has greatly improved our operational efficiency and productivity. Corporate Social Responsibility is a major issue facing Boardrooms, Human Resources departments and travellers alike, as companies shoulder more responsibility for the welfare of their travelling employees. Having a relevant travel policy and employing a business travel management company to benchmark preferred suppliers will help to demonstrate awareness of a more responsible approach. Longreach Travel has the experience and expertise to assist and guide our clients with their Duty of Care. Our ability to assist our clients with their Duty of Care is enhanced by our membership of the major travel trade associations and by the following services: Emergency Assistance
Emergency assistance is merely a telephone call away, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year from experienced, qualified travel consultants. Disabled and Less Mobile Passengers
